

Island Staffing Employee wins San Diego Staffing Professional of the Year

Oceanside, CA – July 5, 2009

Island Staffing, a technology-staffing firm in Oceanside, is proud to announce its own Chelsea Irion received the San Diego Staffing Professional of the Year award from California Staffing Professionals (CSP).

A native to San Diego, Ms. Irion's family relocated while she was in her teens, eventually settling in Georgia and after attending the University of Georgia, she returned to San Diego three years ago. Shortly after settling in Oceanside Ms. Irion joined Island Staffing, a staffing agency founded in 2002 that specializes in contract, contract-to-hire, direct-hire, and project recruiting of technical staff for companies in Southern California.

For the past three years Ms. Irion has helped Island Staffing grow to become one of the top 25 Fastest Growing Privately Held Companies in San Diego. Through good times and difficult ones, such as the current economic crisis, she has taken great pride in helping qualified candidates find rewarding positions. Most people believe recruiting is as simple as plugging a few key words into search engines and occasionally networking. From the moment Ms. Irion looks at a candidate's resume, she digs deeper to find the position that would best suit them and allow them to have a fulfilling job that they love. Ms. Irion makes it a priority to get to know the candidates she's placing and build strong, lasting relationships. In the past three years she has been the top producing recruiter at Island Staffing.

In addition to working at Island Staffing, Ms. Irion enjoys volunteering with San Diego North County Community Services, watching college football, and spending time with friends and family.

Ms. Irion was given her award this past weekend at the annual CSP conference, held this year in Palm Desert. She is very excited to have been acknowledged and in keeping with her top performance has gone on to put three people to work in the last two weeks!
